SECTION TWO

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT BEING A COUNCIL MEMBER

An Overview

The Town of Whitecourt conducts a general municipal election every four years for the offices of Mayor and Councillor (six positions). All general municipal elections in Alberta are conducted under the authority of the Local Authorities Election Act. You should be aware of the contents of this Act, as there may be penalties (including fines, imprisonment, and disqualification from elected office) if you are found in breach of its provisions.

It is important to understand that being a Council Member requires a lot of your time and energy. Being elected as Mayor or Councillor is a four-year commitment to public service. Council Members put in significant hours to serve in their roles and meet their responsibilities.

During your four-year term as Mayor or Councillor, you are required to attend many meetings, conferences, conventions, training workshops, and social events. You will need to spend a considerable amount of time reading and preparing for meetings so that you can make informed decisions that represent the community you serve. You'll be expected to attend numerous functions and events as dignitaries, representatives and officials during the day, evening, and occasionally on weekends.

To assist you in performing your duties, agendas/packages are provided electronically to Council Members. You will be expected to use a smartphone, computer and tablet to receive email messages and receive your Council agendas.

Being a Council Member becomes a lifestyle, one in which you are always interacting with the community while representing the municipality. When you're in the public eye, many people will want to approach you and discuss municipal matters. You will receive phone calls not only at the Town Office, but you're likely to receive calls at home, too, during the day, in the evening, and on weekends. The demand on your time is something to seriously consider, as elected officials must balance these responsibilities with their professional work, and other aspects of their lives.

Mayor

The Mayor has additional responsibilities as head of Council: chairing Council meetings; participating in inter-municipal, inter-government, and regional matters; and representing Whitecourt as its main dignitary and Council spokesperson. The Mayor usually has more office duties and more social obligations than Councillors.

The duties of the Mayor encompass both that of a Councillor and Chief Elected Official as outlined in Sections 153 and 154(1) of the Municipal Government Act.

Councillor

There are six Councillor positions on Whitecourt Town Council. Whitecourt does not follow a ward system.

The duties of a Councillor are outlined under Section 153 of the Municipal Government Act.

Deputy-Mayor

The Deputy Mayor serves as back-up to the Mayor, chairs the Policies and Priorities Committee meetings, and attends other meetings and functions that the Mayor is unable to attend. The position of Deputy Mayor is rotated among Council members throughout the four-year term so that each Councillor is provided an equal opportunity/experience as the Deputy Mayor.

Acting Deputy-Mayor

Occasionally, the Mayor and Deputy Mayor are unavailable, and the Acting Deputy Mayor acts as a representative of Council to fulfill position responsibilities. Procedure Bylaw 1556 allows Council to appoint a Council Member, by motion, to serve as the Acting Deputy Mayor for a defined period of time.

Orientation Training Sessions

Immediately following the official results of the election, all Council Members will be required to attend orientation training sessions. Dates and locations for the sessions will be arranged through the Chief Administrative Office and will be announced in 2025. Policy 11-012 – Orientation of Council Members details how and when elected officials will be briefed on all aspects of the municipality’s operations, policies and procedures, as well as current and outstanding issues and concerns.

If I’m elected, when does my term of office commence?

A person who is elected in an election holds office from when they take the Oath of Office, which will be administered at the Swearing-In Ceremony. The date and details on the ceremony will be confirmed and released by the Town of Whitecourt in 2025.

The first regular Council Meeting of the newly elected Council will follow immediately after the Organizational Meeting on October 27, 2025.

Regular Council Meetings take place on the second and fourth Monday of each month at 4:00 p.m. in Council Chambers at the Forest Interpretive Centre (3002 – 33 Street); with the exception of July, August and December where one meeting per month is scheduled per policy.

Policies & Priorities Committee

Policies and Priorities Committee meetings take place the third Monday of each month (except for July, August and December) at 4:00 p.m. in the Town Office large boardroom (5004 – 52 Avenue). The Committee provides a forum for all members of Council to discuss bylaw and policy development, business and financial planning, and other key issues facing the municipality.

Council Committees

Each Council Member will be appointed to serve as a Council representative on internal and external Council Committees. These appointments are made at the Organizational Meeting of Council held in October of each year.

The Mayor is an ex-officio member of all Council Committees. (The Subdivision and Development Appeal Board is an exception, unless the Mayor is specifically appointed.)

Council Committee meetings may or may not be held during day-time hours, and there will be evening meetings to attend as well. Some committees meet more often than others. For further details, refer to Council Committees Bylaw 1570.

The Mayor and Councillors are actively involved in the selection process of public committee members. Recruitment for public committee members usually commences in September or October of each year.
